Julian Zhang

University of Waterloo, Computer Science and Finance (2024-29)

Rundoo | Product Management Intern (2026)

- 1st PM intern and youngest-ever hire
- PM for a 6-person engineering team. Owned roadmap and prototyping for projects
- Built the market-entry case to Canada (>$100M SAM) and briefed 50+ GTM employees
- Signed first electrical store (5-fig ARR) and brought first lumber store live ($6M/yr sales)

Kalshi | Freelance Writer (2026)

- Wrote newsletter articles (1M+ audience). 600K total views, >40% click-through rate
- Wrote AEO / SEO articles, currently holding the top SEO spot for “what is kalshi”
- Wrote educational articles about perpetual futures, commodities, crypto, and trading

Anthropic | Campus Ambassador (2025)

- Got 1K+ students at the University of Waterloo to start using Claude
- Assisted with the launch of Sonnet 4.5 by hosting a campus-wide hackathon
- Ran an online marketing campaign generating 20K+ impressions

Royal Bank of Canada | Summer Analyst (2025)

- Built a 20-page dashboard serving 500+ domestic and 100+ international pension clients
- Wrote scripts automating accounting processes responsible for $1.2B in assets
- Built models to forecast institutional client trading against the S&P500 and TSX60

Convergence | Founder (2025)

- Hosted 2 Capture The Flag-inspired games for 80+ friends in Toronto and Waterloo
- Led a team of 8, handling sponsors, finances, merchandise, and a short film
- Built a full-stack web app supporting 100+ concurrent users, updates, and game state

Writing

- Surge AI Memo (2026) – Bootstrapped data labelling company with $1.2B revenue
- Crosby Memo (2026) – Largest AI-native law firm rejecting the billable hour
- AI isn’t smart, but neither are we (2025) – Musings on why AGI is already here

Miscelaneous

- #1-ranked competitive debater in Canada (2023) and Team Canada Debate (2023-24)
- Top 1% competitive Pokémon and Clash Royale; fan of poker, chess, basketball, MMA